

The Association of Independent Crop Consultants

Why be a member?

Supporting the increasing market share of independent agronomy

Lobbying industry and Government

Access to extensive independent trials run by members for members

A forum for exchange of ideas and a support network

Enforced Code of Conduct

Representation on behalf of members on all major industry groups

Bespoke PI Package and support on PI issues

Links with manufacturers and technical updates on a regional basis

Discounted schemes on packages relevant to agronomists

Training Courses and access to Academy courses

National Annual Conference – unique in the industry

A presence at major agronomic events

Unique technical and legislative updates

Strong links with research bodies

Model contracts and health and safety documents

Support with individual members issues

Brokering for selling and buying acres

Providing support for trainees

Actionable Insight Tools

THE professional body for truly independent crop consultants - 94% of Independent Agronomists are members

www.aicc.org.uk

The only professional body representing the interests of the truly independent crop consultant and maintaining the accepted position of influence and market share in the industry

AICC stages a National Technical Conference each year - next one at Whittlebury Hall and streamed live on 12, 13, 14 January 2021

Academy for Trainees

Bespoke courses run to support AICC members with their chosen trainee

Discounted schemes available

PI Insurance, NIAB TAG Network, ABC Professional Update, BCPC, AAB, ADAS, IFS, BASIS/FACTS etc

APPLY VIA THE AICC WEBSITE

but be sure you can abide by the Code of Conduct, are totally independent, professionally registered (or training to be) and hold adequate PI Insurance cover

AICC Ltd. Independent View, PO Box 283, Petersfield, Hampshire GU32 9GD

t. 01730 823881 e. admin@aicc.org.uk

www.aicc.org.uk